FARMVILLE.

The people of Farmville are pleased with the action of the legislature with reference to the State Female Normal appropriation. This is mingled with some regret that the full amounts asked for building purposes could not have been granted. We send our greetings to our sisters, Radford, Fredericksburg and Harrisonburg and will welcome them as co-workers in Virginia's generous and glorious work of educating her daughters. There is work enough for all, and glory enough for all too.

Now and then we get a fry of fresh fish from the Appomattox, and at this season they are the very best that come from any waters. The late John Eranbert thought so in his day and no doubt Capt. "Sam" Paulett would say ditto. By the way the Captain has a close fishing place at the north end of his garden that rests on the river, and we are quite sure he has many breakfast dishes which are not bought in market.

We enjoy our granolithic walks now-a-days and never stop to remember that "whiskey did it." We simply attribute it to a good purpose and call it good too.

There is no need to "go west" to find examples of signal success in business. Farmville abounds in such. The Baldwin Bros. came to our town some ten years ago from Cordsville, in Buckingham county and opened a modest store on the west side of Main Street. It was not long before they owned one of the most desirable dry goods establishments in town, if not in Southside Virginia and in addition some of the most desirable residential property on West High Street, and having secured this splendid footing they began to branch out. They now control extensive wholesale business in Richmond and have opened branch stores in Manchester, Petersburg, Lynchburg and Danville. I have seen these several structures and am prepared to say that they are ornaments to the towns in which they are located and monuments to the business sagacity and energy of these young Virginians. I am not so sure that they will not open stores in Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte and on to New Orleans. And these things being so, why "go west young man?" when such victories can be won from Farmville as headquarters.

Our Methodist friends will do nothing "by halves," and so instead of spending $10,000 on improvements to their old church building, they will pull down the old one and erect a new one at a cost of $20,000 They already have one of the handsomest churches to be found in the town of like size in the land.

The election President Jarman as member of the State Board of Education gives great satisfaction to our people and it is particularly gratifying to know that he led in the race, receiving well nigh a unanimous vote. His selection carries with it a splendid and graceful compliment to the girlhood of Virginia. Of course they should be represented on that Board.

Winter refuses to release her grip on the outer world but spring shines out full and strong in our store windows.

Friends of Hampden-Sidney are looking forward to the coming June commencement with quickening interest and are expecting an occasion of unusual merriment. Farmville will no doubt contribute full share to the entertainment. When Normal girls meet college boys then comes roses, rainbows and general radiance.

Judge Watkins has been selected as one of the directors for the new life insurance company recently organized in the Hill City.

Lynchburg and Farmville will make formidable combination. It is high time that life insurance money was staying south rather than coming north. And we should buy our hats, shoes, prints, buggies, blankets, patent medicines, carpets, cigars, sugar and syrup nearer home than we have been accustomed to.

Farmville pricks up its ears, as rumor has it that the Tidewater System will unite with the Tidewater & Western at this point. This would mean double water outlet and should be of immense import. Some enterprising land owners on the line of the Tidewater & Western ought to open a mammoth wood yard in Farmville Wagons are now hauling it a distance of ten miles and this means too much tar on wood sellers and wood buyers. Let the iron horse come to the relief.

Our premature gardeners are rather regretting that they did it.

Sore arms are better and the scare is all gone. This thing occurs with too much regularity and some are cruel enough to say that it comes in the interest of the doctors. I do not entertain any such thoughts on the subject. If we could use them as they do in China for the prevention rather than the cure of the disease, they would be more valuable, for is it not true that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure?

C. B. Burhans Testifies after four years.

C. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of Kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to anyone suffering from kidney or blatter trouble."

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chagtaville, Conn., says: Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the store keeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me. There is no use of anyone suffering from this painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for such a small sum One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox; R. J. Carter, Prospect: E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

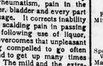
How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys: if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble: too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes the necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggist in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper



Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N.Y., on every bottle.

With The Mermaids.

I see the pale stars quiver and shine
In the blue of the sky above me,
But never again, I rod love of mine,
Will you be asked to love me.

I've found a home 'neath the ocean's brine,
And the proud ships ride above me,
But what care I, in the coral shrine
With the mermaids dear to love me.

They sit and sing 'mid the coral rocks.
Old ocean raves above me,
And as they comb their auburn locks,
Their eyes tell me they love me.

You can sing to your grand hall room tonight
Your arms, like white milk gleaming,
But I am down here 'neath the sea's green light
With the mermaids dear, I'm dreaming.

You can think of me and dream of me
In your proud, cold home above me,
But I am happy now 'neath a strong sea,
With the mermaids dear to love me.

As the weather is too bad for me to be out I will write a few lines from this side of the county to let our friends know that we are still moving on.

We are sorry to have to report the death of Mrs. Alice Lane, the wife of Mr. Wash Lane, who died on Sunday, March 11th. She had been in bad health for the last two or three years, yet her death was unexpected. She leaves a husband and four little children to mourn their loss. Her remains were laid to rest in the old family burying ground. The large number of friends in attendance showed the high esteemed in which she was held in her community. The burial services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Spencer.

There has been right muchplowing done in this section, but few oats have been seeded yet.

From the looks of the weather the ground hog has saved the worst for the last.

Mr. J. E. Carter, our R. F. D. carrier, has been quite unwell for the last week or two.

I'm glad to know that the advocates of the dispensary fell through with their plan and I hope those who favored it for the purpose of securing money for educational and road purposes will try and advocate some moral plan, by which the needed funds may be obtained.

The friends of Mt. Tabor church are getting on nicely raising money for the purpos of getting an organ. They hope to have it by the first Sunday in April.

The Wrought Iron Range Company is selling a good many ranges in our county.

The many friends of Mr. J. H. LeFew are greatly interested in his pursuit and wish him much success.

Messrs. E. J. and Luther Wright paid their parents a short visit at Brownallen last week.

The white schools of our county have been extended one month.

I would be glad if Mr. Dan Keiser, of Cumberland county, would ride over some of the roads of our county and see if they will not compare with some of his that he has so fully described in the Outlook.

Curdsville.

On Wednesday night last Miss Livie Steger at the close of her school gave an enjoyable entertainment at the home of Mr. J. V. Marks. The young people proceeded to play games until about 10 o'clock, when the exercises by the school began, which consisted of recitations by Joe Baldwin, Edwin Morris, Fannie Matthews, Linwood Cox, Yancy Bailey, Lucy Phaup, Daniel Baldwin, Sallie Cox, Annie Marks. Dialogues—Dannie Baldwin, Ruth Phaup and Jimmie Cox. Song—Old Folks at Home, by Dannie Baldwin, Sallie Cox, Cora Cox, Clem Day, Ruth Marks, Fannie Matthews, Ruth Phaup, Jimmie Cox, Emmett Dunkum, and Addie Marks.

At the close of the exercises refreshments were served, after which the children continued their games while the other guests, consisting of the parents of nearly all the children, and a good many of our young friends spent the remainder of the evening in sociable talk.

Many were the words of praise spoken for Miss Steger. We wish her a pleasant vacation and that she will accept our school again next year.

We are glad to say Dr. Lacy will preach at St. Peter's church the 28-h and 29th of April. All come and give him a hearty welcome

On March 7th Mr. Ernest Allen, a prominent farmer in our vicinity and Miss Rita Meadow, of Cumberland county were married at the home of the bride's parents. All wish them a long and happy life.

Farmers Organizing.

Delegates from seven Local Unions of the A. S. of E. met at Dillwyn on Saturday and organized a County Union. Joe Cox, R. B. Johns and Garnet Elliot representing Curdsville; Leon Gills, Sheppards, J. W. Hedditch, New Store, Charles Anderson, Maysville, besides others.

The officers elected for the County Union are as follows—

President Rich. Ellis, Vice President Allan Moore, Secretary and Treasurer J. K. White, Editor of "Virginia Outlook." Twenty-one charter members were enrolled in this local Union.

Mrs. R. E. Steger is very ill at this writing. Dr. Morris was with her all Friday night and he being out of reach of the phone on Saturday night, Dr. Anderson was called from Farmville early Sunday morning.

CUMBERLAND.

The Main street of our town presents a business like appearance as seen from the passing trains of the Tidewater and Western. More freight is received at this depot than at any other between Bermuda and Farmville.

Our people are wondering how they use to get on without a bank.

Capt. Strother, road master of the T. & W., spent Thursday night with us.

Mrs. A. J. Gray returned from Richmond last Saturday and reports Mr. Gray very much improved.

Hon. Paul McRae, owing to the sickness of his mother, came up from Richmond on last Saturday. His work as legislator had been finished, however, and his constituents will say of it, "well done."

Our tobacco sales have been very satisfactory to buyers and sellers alike. We need not comment, but will work it is the question of the day.

It is about time that "Bess" Cox and "Bill" Bugger were looking after the fish in our ponds.

Eggs still "cent apiece" and they make a certain class of Farmville happ every time he can land a basket of them. Old hens, however, are 'roosting high.'

I heard a reliable gentleman say the other day, that Charlie Digges made more money than he knew what to do with. Anyhow he is able, hearty and happy and that's more than most of us can say.

The Spring green begins to spread over our fields and some heads are fash enough to be putting on the "big head."

Land sold here recently at the rate of $12,000 an acre. Keep an eye on Cumberland and watch her grow.

Stapleton.

Several weeks have elapsed since you had anything from this place. Outsiders may think nothing of interest ever happens in our midst, so this rainy morning I'll write you a few items to let you know we are still existing.

We had a most delightful service at Trinity Sunday. Every one who has heard brother Murphy is so pleased with him that they are eager for the 1st and 3rd Sundays to come. They know they will hear a practical sermon, which makes us feel that we are neglecting our duties and creates a desire to try to do more in the future than we have in the past. Dr. Whitehead sang a solo, which was enjoyed by everyone.

The children of the community are looking forward to the 1st Sunday in April with much pleasure, as on that day the Sundy School will be reorganized at Trinity Having been deprived of the pleasure of attending Sunday School for the past three months they are eager for it to begin. When parents and grown folks manifest as much interest in the work as the children then the Sunday School will be more successful than ever.

This county seems to be famous for broken bones. Master Eugene, son of Mr. A. F. Drinkard, had the misfortune to break his arm yesterday afternoon in getting over a rail fence. Dr. Whitehead was called to and in a short while had the little fellow resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Last Sunday Master Van, son of Mr. J. B. Drinkard, had his hip dislocated out of place by a horse falling with him just a few weeks before that Mrs. S. R. Martin fell and broke her arm.

Miss Maude Shearer will close her school in about a week and then she will return to her home in Lynchburg. The people will be sorry to see her leave.

Mrs. John Goss, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks is slowly improving.

The Mt. Zion school, taught by Miss Lucy Dickerson closed on the 23r of Feb. This school has only lost about two days in three sessions. Master Eugene Drinkard deserves special mention for regular attendance. He has been two years to school without missing a day. Miss Dickerson has returned to her home at Drakes Branch, leaving some sad hearts behind.

Mr. R. A. Weakley and son of Walkers Ford and Mr. John Shearer of West Appomattox attended services at Trinity yesterday. We were glad to see their familiar faces and hope to see them among us often.

Last week Mr. Chas. Button of Walkers Ford lost his fine driving horse.

One of our most popular girls will be married before many weeks pass. I know who it is, you guess who it is.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Sheinick 220 So. Peoria St. Chicago.

"Two years ago during a political campaign, I sought cold after being overheated, which irrated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflamation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council."

Concord.

The most delightful evening in the history of Concord was witnessed at the home of Dr. W. L. Ould on Thursday evening last. The regular parlor social given by the W. C. T. U. was held there, and on account of unfavorable weather some few were absent, though proof was to the seer that nothing was lacking and no absent one could have easily athelorated the programme. The spacious residence was ideal for such an occasion. The social was opened by singing and scriptural reading, which was followed by an appropriate prayer offered by Mr. T. H. Steele. A beautiful instrumental solo was given by Miss Nellie Abbott on the piano, after which followed a trio rendered by Mrs. W. L. Ould and Mr. T. H. Steele performing on guitars and Miss Nellie Abbott on the piano. Miss Jeanie Wilson gave quite a beautiful recitation and many other recitations and pieces were given. After the programme was completed the assemblage marched two by two to the dining room where refreshments were served. The elaborate decorations were of superb taste, as the rooms were blending with brilliant illuminations—it presented a scene of fairyland.

Clears the Complexion.

Orino Laxitive Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Orino is much superior to pills, aperient waters and all ordinary carthartics as it does not irritate the stomach and bowels.
